Dear Aline,

I was so sorry to hear that you are ill. I ran into Augustina at the mall and she told me you have been ill for the past month! It sounds like you certainly have had your trials recently. Augustina told me that this illness grew out of others you have suffered through.

I know we have not kept in touch since our children grew up, but I think of you often. That story about you and Carl and the Pink Elephants! Well, I still laugh when I think about you chasing your son all over the park! How is Carl doing now? And Jenna?

I hope I hear from you soon—for sure when you are feeling better. I'd love to get together with you just for coffee or a chat. I've missed your laugh and your sense of humor. You could always make me laugh; maybe I can do the same for you.

Feel better soon!

Love,

Felicia Smith
