

September 25, 2005

Jim Ryan
XYZ Corporation
1234 Morningside Road
Augusta, ME 04330

Dear Jim:

I herewith resign my position at XYZ Company.

Working at XYZ has been the worst experience of my life. As a general rule you managers are the laziest, most useless group of people I have ever met. Talk about suck-ups! You, Jim, are the stupidest, most misanthropic jackass I have ever had the misfortune to meet. You couldn't boss around a dog, let alone a group of talented writers. Your talents are limited to stealing from others and passing off their work as your own. You can't even put together a cohesive sentence. I'd dare you to try but I actually wonder if you are capable of reading and/or understanding this document.

Jim, stay at XYZ as long as you can. In any other setting your true self would be hiding under the stairs waiting to bite the back of someone's leg.

Adios, non-amigo, and no luck to you.

Dunn Smith